THE RENAISSANCE SOCIETY

STUDENT COMMITTEE

The Renaissance Society is located on the fourth floor of Cobb Hall, where we present contemporary art exhibitions along with a regular program of events and publications. Founded in 1915 by a group of University of Chicago faculty members, we are an independent, non-collecting museum with an experimental ethos.

The Ren's Student Committee is an active group of students, both undergraduate and graduate, from any college or university in the Chicago land area. Students in all fields of study are encouraged to apply; all you need is an interest in contemporary art and the Renaissance Society's program. The Committee will convene monthly during the academic year to participate in a program of activities unique to the group.

We're currently looking for new members who are enthusiastic about contemporary art and excited to engage closely with the Ren and its program.

Committee activities begin in November 2025 and extend through June 2026. Participants should be able to commit to roughly one engagement per month, including meetings, field trips, workshops, opportunities to meet artists, and more.

THE RENAISSANCE SOCIETY STUDENT COMMITTEE: CALL FOR MEMBERS

The Renaissance Society is located on the fourth floor of Cobb Hall, where we present contemporary art exhibitions along with a regular program of events and publications. Founded in 1915 by a group of University of Chicago faculty members, we are an independent museum with an experimental ethos.

The Ren's Student Committee is an active group of students, both undergraduate and graduate, from any academic institution in Chicago. Students in all fields of study are encouraged to apply; all you need is an interest in contemporary art and the Renaissance Society's program. The Committee will meet monthly during the academic year and participate in a program of activities unique to the group.

The main goals of the student committee are:

Developing relationships between students and the Ren

- Enjoy behind-the-scenes access at the Ren and opportunities to meet and connect with museum staff
- Learn more about how our international non-collecting art museum works through educational workshops in areas such as programming, publishing, communications, development, and administration

Planning and participating in special events

- Take part in roughly 1 special event per month, including workshops, discussions, studio visits, trips to galleries, meals with exhibiting artists, and more
- Members are highly encouraged to conceive and propose their own ideas for programs, then realize them with support from Ren staff

Forming new connections

- Meet and connect with artists, arts professionals, and other students interested in contemporary art from all over Chicago

All who are interested are welcome to join us Thursday Oct. 16 from 5:30-7pm at the Ren for pizza and information.

Applications are due Friday, November 7 and will be reviewed by November 10. The group's first meeting will take place on Saturday, November 15 at 4pm.

To apply please send a brief statement of interest and CV to info@renaissancesociety.org.

We look forward to hearing from you.
