Peter Howe, solo trumpet

This is the third and most recent release of the duo's album, which was released in 2007. The album features a mix of original and reworked pieces, including a tribute to the late trumpeter Arturo Sandoval.

Lecture
Saturday, February 5, 4:00 pm

Dennis King Keenan, Vigilant and the Sacrifical Logic of Desire

Keenan, currently Professor of Philosophy at Fairleigh Dickinson University, is the author of numerous works, including The Gift of Nothing and The Great Divide. His recent philosophical discussions on the gift and the sacrifice have been influential in the field of contemporary philosophy.

GALLERY TOUR
Saturday, February 11, 1:00 pm

Assistant Professor of English

Concetta Caminiti

Caminiti will lead a detailed look at questions surrounding the act of sacrifice. In this regard, the symbolic sacrifices entailed in the installation will be discussed, as well as the symbolic sacrifices attributed to Christ. In this way, we can understand sacrifice as the moment in which the sacrifice is made in order to achieve salvation.

Sunday, February 5, 2:00 pm

Josephine Adams, Memory and the Spectacle of Sacrifice

Adams, currently a doctoral candidate in English at UC Berkeley, will discuss the ways in which memory and spectacle influence the act of sacrifice. Her talk will focus on the role of the visual in shaping our understanding of sacrifice.

Sunday, February 12, 2:00 pm

Marsha Bentley Hale, No. 2

Hale is in the process of founding the Siragusa Foundation. In her talk, she will discuss the role of the foundation in supporting contemporary art and culture.

Wednesday, February 22, 12:00 noon

I Give You All My Money
